

Adventures in Newport!

Come join the COA and the Topsfield Historical Society as we once again partner on an exciting visit that includes the Naval War College Museum, a late lunch at the Officers Club followed by a bus ride past the world famous Newport Mansions; then time to stop at Newport's tourist district before heading back to Topsfield.

The date of this one day visit is Tuesday, August 21, 2018. We will leave at 9AM from the Trinity Episcopal Church parking lot on an airconditioned restroom equipped coach arriving at the museum about 11AM for a two hour visit. A great lunch will follow. Next will be a bus ride past Vanderbilt's Summer "cottage" known as the "Breakers" plus other mansions of a by gone era during the nineteenth century's gilded age. We will then visit the historic section of Newport where we will walk among the many shops catering to tourists before boarding the bus for our return, arriving back in Topsfield about 7 PM.

Cost of this visit is $60.00 per person which includes all the bus transportation and a sumptuous late lunch. Attendance is limited to the first 35 applicants so please don't delay in sending your check no later than July 31st made out to:

Topsfield Historical Society

Please note on the check "COA/THS Tour".
